

CONFIDENTIALMINUTES*CHILD PROTECTION TASKFORCE 11/09/04
ARCHBISHOP'S RESIDENCE WEST TERRACE. ADELAIDE.

Present: Archbishop Wilson, Jane Swift, Pauline Frick, Sue Cain, Allan Dooley, Chris Rann, Tony Fuller, Msg. David Cappo, Anne Carolin

St. Ann's

Anne met with [REDACTED] and Martin Aartsen to ask them about school practices regarding student supervision when attending curriculum activities such as RDA, swimming and TAFE at the time when Brian Perkins was employed as a bus driver at St. Ann's.

Anne reported Martin and [REDACTED]'s responses to these issues;

1. Brian Perkins was employed as a bus driver, not as an ESO. Consequently he did not supervise students attending these curriculum activities.
2. Students attending swimming and RDA were accompanied by their class teacher(in this case [REDACTED]) and an ESO.
3. They did not travel alone on the bus with Brian Perkins to these activities.
4. They do not recall any reports of the bus being late for these activities.
5. They recall that [REDACTED] took his own class for woodwork.
6. They recall that [REDACTED] accompanied his students to TAFE.
7. [REDACTED] had a bus drivers license and would have driven the bus to these activities.
8. [REDACTED] organized a class camp for the Transition Class at Noarlunga. [REDACTED] attended this camp. This appears to be the camp to which [REDACTED] referred when she spoke about the incident at camp when [REDACTED] was isolated in a room on her own.

[REDACTED] and Martin said that as [REDACTED] was [REDACTED]'s class teacher he would be able to provide more definitive answers to these questions. [REDACTED] [REDACTED] would also be able to provide more accurate information relating to swimming classes, RDA and the Transition Class camp.

Allan and Tony agreed to pursue the possibility of an interview with [REDACTED] and [REDACTED]

Archbishop Wilson said that he was in the process of arranging a meeting with the [Family 2] Family and anticipated that Sue Cain would be involved in this meeting.

Tony Fuller reported that the team had worked on a draft response to Sr. Loreto's letter. They had addressed the issues in a historical perspective and would be providing the Archbishop with a briefing paper for his interview with Sr. Loreto.

Paul Slattery had indicated that he would endeavour to provide the St. Ann's Review and School Board Guidelines to Tony prior to this meeting unless he was unable to do this due to his court commitments.

CCI

Sue Cain said that Jo Bucci was coming to Adelaide next week to go through the St. Ann's files in order to prepare the evidence for the St. Ann's insurance claim. She believed that since Edmund Fernandez departure CCI were not fully aware the situation. They were still asking for police statements and other forms of evidence that were not available.

Allan commented on the changes in relationship between the CEO and CCI over the past months. He said that after initial difficulties the relationship had improved over the past few weeks.

Malcolm Robinson:

Tony Fuller provided a written summary of the legal implications pertaining to the AASW's notification that Malcolm Robinson is no longer eligible for membership of the Association.

Archbishop Wilson said that the taskforce needed to take the following actions:

1. Contact Malcolm Robinson to discuss the actions of the AASW
2. Pay outstanding invoices relating to counseling services provided by Malcolm Robinson.

David Cappel, Jane Swift, Pauline Frick and Tony Fuller will meet to discuss a plan of action relating the contractual relationship between Malcolm Robinson and the Diocese.
