Dear Colleagues

Please find below information relating to the reporting of critical incidents or other issues of concern which arise from time to time in our schools.

Should an emergency or critical incident arise at your school, you are required to ring your Principal Consultant. The Principal Consultants and their contact details are listed below. In addition, we take this opportunity to remind you that your Director should be notified immediately either directly or through your Principal Consultant of any incident that arises in the following areas:

- All serious misconduct matters involving staff or volunteers that include matters such as the following:
 - Any professional standard matter including inappropriate handling of students
 - Matters involving sexual or physical abuse
 - Drug related matters
 - Other significant matters involving SAPOL or significant media attention for schools
- Any other matter or complaint serious enough to be brought to the attention of the Director.
