Details of alleged Incident AYB Archdiocese wrote to me in 1992 and then asked for an interview regarding interference of a sexual nature by the alleged offender when she was eleven years of age.

At no time did she disclose the alleged offender but left with questions unanswered. She said she was having counselling and wanted no action taken.

In April 1994, word came from Brisbane Archdiocese that she sought a meeting with the alleged offender whom she had named. Her contact person, Noel Hynes is arranging the meeting. She says she has no wish for further action.

This information is required for our review of the existing Special Issues Cover. All matters disclosed to us will be eligible for consideration as claims in the light of subsequent developments.
