Dear Fr Reg

Re: POLICE MATTERS

I refer to the above matter and in particular to your recent trial in the District Court, Brisbane.

The Jury were unable to reach a unanimous verdict and were discharged. The Crown Prosecutor has indicated that he intends to re-try you in relation to the charge involving AYP. The matter has been set down for further hearing in the District Court, Brisbane commencing 27 September, 1999.

I do propose to put a further submission to the Director of Public Prosecutions requesting that it discontinue with the outstanding charges against you.

I will keep you informed of developments in relation to the matter.

In the meantime I enclose herewith my account which represents the work which I have performed on your behalf since 15 February, 1999. Following your appearance in the District Court, Rockhampton on 15 February, 1999, I did forward an account direct to Father Grace. As you will be released on parole on 15 June, 1999, I thought that it would be more appropriate for me to forward this latest account directly to you and if necessary, you can then take it up with Father Grace regarding payment.

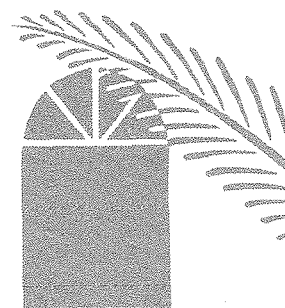

If you have any queries in relation to the matter, please do not hesitate to telephone me.

Yours faithfully

Justin Houlihan
