

06 October 1997

MEDIA RELEASE

The Catholic Bishop of Rockhampton Brian Heenan, away from the diocese at the moment, supports fully the apology which has been offered by the Sisters of Mercy. While acknowledging the caring ministry of the Sisters which was carried out at Neerkol over so many years, Bishop Heenan said the whole of the diocese would want to offer an apology to any person who was harmed in any way by anyone working in the church at Neerkol, or anywhere else. He commended the Sisters for their honesty and ongoing compassionate concern for all who had ever been under their care.

Further enquiries:

Contact: Bishop's Secretary (079) 22 1149