not going to cause trouble, but I do feel the need to talk with you. I must admit my life has been full of ups & downs & I have had hours & hours of counselling. I am married to the most wonderful man in the world & I know that God has given me many many blessings. We hope to celebrate our Silver Wedding Anniversary next year.

I will be in Rockhampton staying with my parents from Sunday 20th June until Friday 25th. I really would appreciate you spending an hour with me & I look forward to hearing from you.

Please keep this confidential

Dear Bishop Brian,

I noticed in the media that you are going to hold a forum for the priests in your diocese during September. Congratulations. I really think this a wonderful idea.

Before this happens, I would really like to talk to you. I am an ex Rocky girl, having spent 21 years there before my marriage to RED

As a child I suffered rather a traumatic time as I was sexually abused for a number of years by one of the Priests.

Please don't panic. I am
