

Follow up Morris to meeting with [AYB] 23.3.2002 & visit to [REDACTED] 1.00PM 26th Mar 2002 at her home.

I informed [REDACTED] that the meeting had taken place in Brie, between [AYB] and myself and that the impact of [REDACTED] letter to the M.B. was significantly upsetting I informed K.B that there was much more to the claims of abuse than she was aware of. [REDACTED] was reluctant to believe but she accepted what I was saying, she indicated she would not be taking any further action.
It was an amicable meeting.

I wrote to [REDACTED], letter posted on 25.3.2002 as per attached copy.

Meeting with Martin Durham 26/3/2002 at his residence 7.45pm

I informed M.D of the meeting in Brisbane with [AYB] sharing the background of [AYB] and family distress over RD.

I made the request that he meet [REDACTED] to speak with her. He declined saying it would be like a hornets nest and would not achieve much. He did not know the [REDACTED] family well, was involved infrequently.

I made the request that he meet with [AYB] and he declined say nothing would be achieved except acrimony.

He spoke of RD declining mental and physical health and his fathers ability to cope with life.

He mentioned the decision that RD. had been judged fit to face trial and that an appeal had been lodged.
