Dear Dave,

I am writing to you, following the chance to meet you last Thursday afternoon. I wanted to let you know that I really appreciated the opportunity to sit with you and hear from you some aspects of your experiences. I can only image Dave that Thursday would have been a harrowing day in court and I particularly value the time and energy you took to meet with Sr. Anne Slattery and myself.

In meeting you personally, Dave, I was certainly struck by your courage and determination in having your experiences heard. You have experienced such traumatic things and still you are prepared to keep seeking justice. I am sincerely impressed, Dave, by your commitment to that justice.

I am returning your documentation Dave – I have taken a copy of it and have placed it on the file. Thank you for your access to that information.

No doubt Dave, we will talk again – I do hope you
