Dear AYN

My apologies for the delay in replying to your correspondence dated 1 June 1998. I am glad that you appreciated the photos that were forwarded to you. I have made further enquiries of the Sisters who live at Neerkol as to whether there is any personal belongings of the children still there. I am sorry to say that despite another search nothing could be found. I know how much the ring that your Mother gave you meant to you and I regret deeply that we cannot find it for you.

AYN, Marianne Dredge of the Alternative Disputes Resolution Branch has advised me that you would like to meet with me at a suitable date in the future. I have advised Marianne of a couple of dates that I will be in Brisbane and she will be in contact with you to see if the dates that I have suggested are suitable to you.

I cannot recall exactly what photos we previously forwarded to you so at that meeting I will bring with me any other Neerkol photos that we have to hand and you can see if there is any of them that you would like to keep.

Once again, thank you for your letter and I look forward to meeting you in due course to continue together our journey of reconciliation.

Regards

Di-Anne Rowan
