MARGATE, Kent. CT9
 U.K.
 The Rev. T.F. Little, D.D., S.T.D.
 Archbishop of Melbourne. 12th January 1994.

Dear Lord Archbishop,

Receipt of your letter of the 11th January came to hand yesterday. Its content was saddening & added to the isolation.

Your decision to remove all faculties is noted & will be strictly adhered to in every particular.

I am deeply grateful for the tenderness implicit in the permission to continue to offer a private Mass which I have been doing since arrival
 'semper soha', otherwise attending Sunday
 Mass nearby or at Ramsgate Abbey.

With respectful & sincere good wishes.

Donato Andolini.

P.S. In the spirit of your paternal decision as my Ordinarium, I assure you that I shall regard your decision as operative & binding in every place & circumstance & will not apply for or accept any public or private 19/1/94.
