27th day of May 1986.

My dear Archbishop,

Your 'Litterae Commendatoriae' of 28th February gave approval, & permission, for leave of absence from the Archdiocese for the three months 3rd March to 3rd June 1986.

Would you very kindly grant an extension until towards the end of June. A Physician has so advised & I recognise the need of a slightly longer rest. This will mean my absence from the Confirmation of many of my parishes in early June — a matter of regret to me & of regret, maybe, for some of the Candidates.

Father Ralph Byrne, O.F.M., prior in charge at S. James, has offered to continue his charge for the further period.

I trust, then, that I shall see you, Your Grace, shortly after my return.

With fraternal good wishes,

Yours sincerely,

Daniel A. Jenkins,
prior.
