London, E.14.

His Grace Archbishop Mannix,
Melbourne.

Your Grace,

I have pleasure in recommending to you Mr. Ronald Pickering for your Diocese. I have known him on some five years during which time he has been a constant helper to me in my work here. He is a young man whom I appreciate very much for his scholarship, interest in church music, and in church subjects generally.

He also has a good knowledge of bookkeeping, holding as he does a responsible job with a Banking Firm.

He bears an excellent character and is highly respected by the parishioners here.

I trust Your Grace is keeping well.

Yours most sincerely,

(Sgd.) C. JOSEPH IRWIN, P.P.
