ELTHAM, 3095.

Dear Mrs. REDACTED,

Although the contents of your letter of 10th March, 1992, are not matters which bring great joy, I write to express my appreciation of the respectful and helpful way in which you have brought these issues to my notice.

I am aware that the letter you have written is one which would not be easy to compose. Noone likes to be in a position where such action has to be taken.

Yet in a clear and detached way you have shared with me your perceptions of what is happening at the parish scene. You will appreciate that both sides of a question need to be examined. The matter is proceeding.

With cordial greetings and best wishes, I remain,

Yours sincerely in Christ,

ARCHBISHOP OF MELBOURNE
