Date: 14th November 2006

In her report to me on Friday 10 November, Maria Kirkwood reported on her visit to Healesville the previous evening. Mrs BTJ and her son (who was friendly with Fr Pavlou) were interviewed.

The mother's interview went well, according to Maria, and no further information emerged.

When Maria interviewed the son he wrote something which he had not told his mother.

He alleged that on the telephone Father Pavlou had told the boy that he loved him and wanted him to be part of his life. Fr Pavlou said to the boy he felt like masturbating himself while talking to him.
