

Notre Dame Abbey,
Tarravarra.

15th June, 1962.

Most Rev. A. F. Fox.

My Lord,

I have today finished the three-day Retreat you asked me to make last February, adding to inform you after making it.

With the grace of God and the example of the dedicated lives here at Notre Dame Abbey I have great confidence in being more prudent in the future.

2. With regard to the "Private and Personal Correspondence" of which I received a copy, I would like to make the following statement:

Since that thing bears, unfortunately, the address where I am assistant priest, I wish to state - which is hardly necessary - that I ^{myself} have never had, from the very beginning, any part whatsoever in that sort of nonsense.

I am,
your Lordship's obedient servant,
A. Fasciale.
