Dear Father,

As yet I am unable to pay last years fees and the way things are I don't see anyway I will be able to pay any this year.

Since December I have had no work, and because I was working sub. con.
I am ineligible for the Supporting parents full pension, so since January I have been on only $66 per fortnight.

I would like an answer in writing to my plight.

Yours
