Dear Phil,

Congratulations on the website. I wonder if you would be good enough to check out if there is any "form" around a priest who migrated to Australia from Ireland. We have a serious complaint about him. There have been no other complaints here. His name is Aidan Duggan and I suspect he may have been a Benedictine. He is currently in a nursing home but unable to be interviewed because he is suffering from severe dementia. He has a brother, Rev. Fabian Duggan OSB who is the sole member of Lumen Christi Priory in the Wagga Wagga Diocese here in country NSW. I'm reasonably certain that he came to Australia because he believed the Benedictines he belonged to in Ireland were becoming too radical! I would be grateful if you could give me any leads. Trust you are well. Take care.

Dear All,

I am delighted to announce the launch of the Child Protection Office Website. The address is www.cpo.ie . Please visit the site and inform your colleagues of its existence. We hope you find the information and material useful and would welcome your feedback on content. Please add us to your links page and if we have not done so already, we will reciprocate.

Regards

Paul
