Dear Peter,

I enclose the latest draft of the document on sexual abuse.

I received many comments from a number of people, and I accepted so many comments that the document is substantially different from the earlier draft.

I did not accept all comments because different people wanted the document to move in different directions. I wish to assure everyone on the committee, however, that the fact that I did not accept all their suggestions does not mean that I have rejected them. I intend to bring their comments to the next meeting later this month and let the committee make the decisions on these matters.

I did not send the last draft to the Friends of Susanna, but I have sent a copy of this draft to them.

It is taking a long time, but we have only one chance to get the document right.

Yours sincerely,

Rev G Robinson
