Dear Brian,

I enclose a suggested redraft of the document on procedures. I have done several things:

- I have tried to write it in a more simple and less legal language;
- I have added a few ideas;
- I have omitted some things (and would be happy to talk with you about these omissions);
- I have moved some material from one section to another when I thought it sat better there;
- I have omitted the whole of sections 9 on preventive strategies, 10 on the re-employment of offenders, and 11 on the media and insurance, as I feel that, for different reasons in each case, they belong better in other documents. I feel it is better to limit this document to what the title states: Procedures for dealing with allegations of sexual abuse.

I would be happy to talk this over with you at the earliest opportunity.

I hope Norfolk Island was relaxing.
Best wishes,

Geoff
