John

Do you think Fr John Doherty would have the right to request as Chancellor? Or would it need to be a relative of Fr Duggan?

If Fr JD can request the records I can draft a letter for him to run by you and HG.

Thanks

Dominic,

I think the medical notes from the nursing home relating to the assessment of his ability to function would be sufficient, but someone authoritative would need to request them.

Thanks John - you have suggested some form of assessment of Fr D - do you have an expert in mind?

Thanks for that Dominic. We still have the problem of his level of dementia. The complainant has been advised by his mother who visited Fr Duggan recently that he is very much compos mentis in contrast to the message we had received previously that he hardly knows where he is.

Dear Pauline

I know you have looked previously for records relating to father Aidan Duggan - can you please carry out one more search?

I am particularly interested in anything which refers (positively or negatively) to the professionalism of his behaviour over the years.

Many thanks
