Greetings Mons

I had a very brief chat to John Dalzell of Corrs today re your proposed letter to John Ellis re spiritual direction.

John Dalzell recommends that the letter be 'put on hold' pending the outcome of the Limitations Period Hearing in October.

He understands the purpose of the letter but thinks that, at this stage of the litigation, we need to avoid providing any 'mixed message'.

In the unlikely event that John Ellis wins the initial argument, the sending of the letter may be in order.

Thanks

DEC
