Dear All,

Mgr Bayada should be informed, confidentially and as Fr Duggan's attorney, of the issues and should be asked to discuss them with Fr Duggan (if he considers Fr Duggan is up to it). He should be asked to obtain Fr Duggan's written consent to an independent medical assessment and (if he has doubts about capacity) he should be asked for written consent as Fr Duggan's attorney and, as well, he should be asked to obtain Fr Duggan's own written consent for what it is worth.

Regards,

Richard d'Apice AM
