Dear Father Usher

We have received a request from the Plaintiff in the matter to establish the identity of the personal representative of the late Fr Aidan Duggan. I know that Mgr Kerry Bayada held the power of Attorney for Fr Duggan whilst he was in the latter stages of his illness at the Little Sisters of the Poor. Do you know who, if anyone, now represents the interests of the Duggan estate? If you do not know, please let me know and I will convey this to the other side. They have sought this information as a matter of urgency given that they have only got one more day in which to issue their subpoenas.

○ Could you let me have your thoughts on this tomorrow morning?

Thank you for your help

Kind regards

John Dalzell
