Dear John,

I am sorry that we have taken some time to get back to you. Your statement was received here on June 3, 2002 and as already indicated, the complaint has been sent to Archbishop Pell, and I am presently trying to find out if the priest is in a fit state of health to be assessed.

The next step in the process of pursuing the matters you have raised will probably be finding that support person that we have discussed and then appointing an independent assessor separately to meet you and the priest if this is feasible.

Yours sincerely,

John Davoren

Director of Professional Standards
