RH spoke with facilitator. He reported that he had seen complainant and his wife. Wife had concerns about the process (challenging elements in the process and time delays). These needed to be addressed as she was to be involved in the facilitation. They had wanted CA to come up with a figure. However, when pressed, they put forward the sum of $100K as a notional figure based on needs (ie, treatment in the form of counselling; and accommodation costs over three years). Facilitator authorised to put this figure to CA. He indicated to complainant and wife that there might be some delay before a response could be given as a meeting with the CA would not take place before Easter and then CA might need time to consider proposal and to seek advice.
