Dear Sirs,

DG  v THE TRUSTEES OF THE MARIST BROTHER

We refer to our letter of 17 April, and write to inform you of a "change of plan".

We had earlier suggested that we should meet you and your client in REDACT and proceed by way of an informal settlement conference. We have now been instructed that we should arrange to meet you in Brisbane, and that our client would pay a return economy airfare for Mr DG and you as his legal representative (ie for two people) for that settlement conference.

We suggest that the conference might conveniently be held at our Brisbane office – Level 22, 123 Eagle Street, Brisbane, 4000, ph: 07 3303 8888. We suggest that it might be appropriate for us to schedule the settlement conference around midday, so that you and your client can fly down from REDACT and return there after the conference on the same day.

Could you let us know whether that would be in order and, if appropriate, suggest a range of alternative dates which might be suitable to you and your client for this settlement conference.

There is another matter. Your client has in the past met with Br Michael Hill of the Marist Brothers. He was at the time the Provincial of the Marist Brothers. He has now retired from that position. We enquire whether your client would like his successor to this role, Br Alexis Turton, to attend the settlement conference with us. If so, we will make those arrangements, and we will need to find a date that suits him as well. Accordingly, a broad range of alternative dates would be helpful.

Yours faithfully,
