Hi DK,

Yes that looks good. I will forward that document and your signed Deed of Release to CCI today and they will attend to transferring the money into your bank account. They do have your details, but I will forward them with the email.

Have a happy and safe Easter.

Kind regards,

Hi Liz,

Attached is signed form as discussed.

Could you please have a quick look at it before I put it in the post.

I have also attached signed letter to Medicare with my bank account details.

Could you also pass on my bank account details to Joe Bucci at Catholic Church Insurances. I think that I gave these to him on Tuesday but would just like to confirm with him that he has the correct details

Thanks for your help

DK
