

On the 12th of July, at 2/13 Promotion Course, RAAF Wagga, at the end of course parade, I was handing out information booklets to guests. As I approached WOFF (AAFC) [REDACTED] to hand out a booklet to him and his guest, I heard him and his guest bickering about me, as I could hear "her" and "she" being exchanged in conversation, and picked up from their body language that it was about me.

Afterwards, I said to CWOFF [REDACTED] that his "best friend" is here and I also told him that he was bickering about me, then [REDACTED] stated "he hates you". I questioned why and he said because of "C.A", I was initially confused but was confirmed that he meant Chris Adams.

I later told PLTOFF (AAFC) [REDACTED] C.J.F. as she then took the appropriate actions on this incident.

Later, CWOFF [REDACTED] approached me and asked if I told PLTOFF (AAFC) [REDACTED] C.J.F. and I said that its none of his concern, he was then worried that people higher up will find out and that it will ruin the professional relationship with WOFF (AAFC) [REDACTED]. I said that its being dealt with properly and that it wont affect his relationship with [REDACTED]. I reassured him that I just want to know as to how WOFF (AAFC) [REDACTED] knows about this incident. CWOFF [REDACTED] then told me that a while ago around the end of April, that he caught up with WOFF (AAFC) [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] asked [REDACTED] about what happened on the 1/13 Promotion cause as [REDACTED] was there. [REDACTED] gave him hints as to what he heard and [REDACTED] denied that claim. [REDACTED] then told me that [REDACTED] keeps things like that closed to himself. As that comment was made, I didn't feel comfortable as I personally don't know WOFF (AAFC) [REDACTED] himself, but from the bickering that occurred at the parade, I felt that I was being judged then and there.
