Hi CJE ,

It really was so nice to meet you yesterday, thank you so much for your time. I know that you are very busy at this stage of the promotion course.

I spoke to the Chaplains office at Wagga yesterday and they have two chaplains in most days. They are more than happy to see you and have a chat so if you would like to call them on REDACTED you can make a time to meet with them.

I have also included below some of the information I sent to both of your parents in terms of what professional support may be available to you.

I believe you are dealing with all of this very well, I just think you may benefit from some independent professional support. Please let me know how you go with this.

If there is anything I can help with, or if you would like to visit you again at any stage, please just give me a call.

Again, it was lovely to meet you and I hope you enjoy the rest of your course.

Regards,

Jac

Privately you can go through your GP to arrange a referral for a counselling service.

If you go through your family GP to arrange a referral for a counselling service there are a few options for payment:

If you wish to use the services available to the community, the following services have been recommended by the Defence Community Organisation in your area.

Anglicare Support Services 02 9895 8000

In relation to payments, if they take an invoice you can send the invoice to:

SQNLDR Jacqueline Hatch
Cadet Branch Air Force

PO Box 7933
CANBERRA BC 2610

or scan them in an email them to jacqueline.hatch@defence.gov.au

While invoices are easier for us, if they want payment at the time of appointment, we can use credit card over the phone. Please give me a call to arrange this and we can coordinate a time to contact the service provider.

We can do reimbursements, if you would like to pay for the appointments in the first instance, however we will then be required to put your details in to our payment system and that can take a week or two.

I am more than happy to go with whatever is easiest for you in terms of making the payments. Please give me a call if you have any questions.
