

SELECTED REFERENCES ON TRIAD SOCIAL GROUPWORK
AND RELATED TOPICS

- 1) Beers, C.W. A Mind That Found Itself. (7th ed.) New York: Doubleday, 1948.
- 2) Cressey, D.R. Changing criminals: the application of the theory of association. American Journal of Sociology, 1955, 61, 116-20.
- 3) McCorkle, L. Eliss, A. & Dixby, L. The Highfields Story. New York: Holt, 1958.
- 4) Slack, C.W. Experimenter-subject psychotherapy: a new method of introducing intensive office treatment for unreachable cases. Mental Hygiene, 1960, 44, 238-256.
- 5) Bassin, A. Daytop Village: on the way up from drug addiction. Psychology Today (U.S. ed.) 1968, December, 48-52, 68.
- 6) Slack, C.W. The theory of triads. Educational Technology, 1972, 12(14), 23-29.
- 7) Helms, D.J. & Russell, R. The Odyssey House model and civil commitment. Federal Probation, 1973, 37, 31-34.
- 8) Slack, C.W. Triad theory: an approach to intractable behaviour problems. Presented at the Harvard/Beth Israel Seminar in Medicine, May 17, 1973.
- 9) Vorath, H.H. & Brenaltro, L.K. Positive Peer Culture. Chicago: Aldine, 1974.
- 10) Slack, E.N. Remedies for wrongs: updating programs for delinquent girls. Criminal Justice and Behaviour, 1974, 4, 381-387.
- 11) Clarke, R.V.G. & Martin, D.N. A study of absconding and its implications for the residential treatment of delinquents. In Tizard et al. (Eds.) Varieties of Residential Experience. London and Boston: Routledge & Kegan Paul, 1975.
- 12) Slack, c.w. 7 Slack, E.N. Triad therapy. Psychology Today (U.S. ed.) 1976, February, 46-50, 93.
- 13) Slack, C.W. & Slack, E.N. Triad Therapy, unpublished. 4 pages. December, 1976.
- 14) Slack, E.N. Triad therapy for juveniles. In A.M. Brodsky (Ed.) National Perspectives on Female Offenders (Conference proceedings). Tuscaloosa: Center for Correctional Psychology, Department of Psychology, University of Alabama, 1977, U.S.A.
- 15) Slack, C.W. & Slack, E.N. Rehabilitation through triads: A Gentle War. The Bridge, February, 1978, 3(1), 4-5; published by the Victorian Association for the Care and Resettlement of Offenders. Melbourne, Australia.
- 16) Slack, C.W. How to Comprise a Group. Unpublished. 2 pages. March, 1980.
- 17) Slack, C.W. How to Lead a Group. Unpublished. 3 pages. April, 1980.
- 18) Slack, C.W. & Slack, E.N. Triad Therapy. In Herink, Richie (Ed.) The Psychotherapy Handbook. New York: Meridian Book Publishers, 1980.
- 19) Knight, T. New Roles for Youth in Schools, The Education Magazine, 1980, Vol. 37, No. 3, 27-29, Australia.
- 20) Cook, S. Tattoos Shape Your Future - An Evaluation. Melbourne, Australia. Unpublished, 1982.

- 21) Slack, C.W. & Slack, E.N. The triad method for reducing adolescent aggression in an institutional population. In Harsman, Jusuf (Ed.) The Therapeutic Efficacy of Major Psychotherapeutic Techniques, Illinois, Charles C. Thomas, Publishers, 1983.
- 22) Amos, E.M. The Evaluation of Programs and Procedures at Winlaton Youth Training Centre. Unpublished M.A. Thesis, La Trobe University, 1984, Melbourne, Australia.
- 23) Slack, C.W. & Slack, E.N. Forensic Management - The Winlaton Design. Ten years' advocacy of resident rights. Unpublished. 6 pages. May, 1985, Melbourne, Australia.
- 24) Slack, E.N. & Slack, C.W. The Reluctant Client. The Probation Officer, December, 1985, Vol. 22, No.1, pages 15-21, published by The Probation Officers' Association of Victoria, Australia.
- 25) Slack, C.W. & Slack, E.N. Straight Talk About Institutions for Young People. The Justice of the Peace, March 1987, Vol. 77, No. 1; published by the Royal Victorian Association of Honorary Justices, Melbourne, Australia.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION PLEASE CONTACT:

Manager
Winlaton Youth Training Centre
Nunawading
Victoria, 3131
Australia.