

DHS.3026.0004.0017

Punishment/use of isolation may induce feelings of guilt, anger (or pleasure) in the person who administered it with destructive results – both in their relationship to the ‘punished’ and other children/youth and also to other staff.

Safety valve for institution