Dear YJ

I am writing to formalise the substance of our discussions which took place in Mr YK's office on Wednesday 2 September 2009 regarding police investigations into allegations being made by a THE SCHOOL family with regard your relationship with their son.

At that meeting, I indicated to you that you were to take paid personal leave pending the aforementioned investigations. I also indicated that should the police lay charges against you, then I would move to dismiss you from your employment here at the School.

I wish to offer to you (at no cost to you as an individual) opportunities for personal counselling by a qualified counsellor who has no association with the School. Should you wish to take this offer, I would ask that you contact me forthwith.

Yours sincerely

WD
