Dear Mr Curlewis

WD - Board Resolution – No Further Action

We wish to advise that on 17 July 2013, the Teacher Registration Board of Western Australia ("the Board") met and considered the allegation that while your client was headmaster of a school from 2002 to 2010, despite considerable documented concerns about a particular teacher's behaviour over a number of years, your client allowed him to continue teaching and to have unsupervised contact with students and that in doing so, your client may have taken insufficient action to protect the welfare of the children at the school.

The Board passed a resolution with respect to the investigation into your client's matter as follows:

The Board resolved that no further action be taken in this matter. (TRB2013Jul/36)

The investigation will not be continued and the Board will not undertake any further investigation into this matter or recommend that the complaint be referred elsewhere, unless a new complaint or a new allegation is received. If that circumstance was to arise, investigation may be undertaken of any new allegation as well as consideration again of this matter.

Notwithstanding the current outcome of this investigation, we advise that should your client make any application to teach in other States under section 37 of the Mutual Recognition Act 1992, your client is obligated to advise the regulating bodies in other States of this investigation that has been held in relation to this matter. Therefore we recommend that your client retain a copy of this letter as evidence of the outcome of the investigation.

Please contact our office if you have any further queries, otherwise your client's matter is considered finalised and your file will be closed.

Yours faithfully
