 RE: Counselling
 FILE NO: BQA

25/05/2000 Time: 8.00pm or so BQA

- 1 He said BQA got in touch with him. He BQA had got his name from the Electoral Roll/School Magazine. The significance of all that escapes me, except perhaps that BQA was given BQA name by someone else.
- 2 He said he knew Kevin Lynch well. Not only did he see him in his office on a professional basis, he also saw him socially after school hours. He knew his son David well. When he was told what happened to Kevin Lynch he was shocked but relieved.
- 3 He did not know anything about the criminal charges. Something about touching children's genitals.
- 4 He saw Lynch once a week for 2½ years. Every session I would be in my underwear, he would touch/push in my diaphragm. Relax/Deep Breathing techniques. His hands only went to the pubic line. He said that Lynch spoke about masturbation.
- 5 He said he told BQA to check with Sports' Psychologist Ian Lynagh. He BQA voiced his concerns to him (he was afraid to go back to Kevin Lynch). He said he had a friend BQA who used to be in tears at times. He knew Lynch at a personal level; he lived near Lynch at BQA. He says Lynch was masturbating BQA kissing him and "put a condom on him". BQA saw Lynch regularly. Told BQA "OK to do this. This is how it's done". BQA was a "?????" person. Lynch got him to believe the therapy was genuine. BQA said he couldn't complain because Lynch had done nothing to him. Ian Lynagh told him therefore that he would have to get BQA to complain. He would not; only 14/15 years old. No one else knew. So just stayed well away BQA
- 6 He said he told BQA he had no case and nothing to gain. If there were others, he believed they should be heard.
- 7 BQA said BQA would testify. Boys approached BQA BQA went to Lynch who said they were "joking remarks".
- 8 BQA said he got to know the regulars. The academic under-achievers. Lynch did a lot of work with them. It was a "small handful he believes". But not isolated. There was a big desk, chairs and a little side office. He used to give BQA a cigarette and an ashtray, to get him to come back.

[Comment (HLS) for Abernethy. BQA came once per week for 2½ years, plus cigarettes for ?????? ??? no indecent dealing? If Lynch put that effort in for a "failure", how many successes could he have been having? Or is BQA covering up and still denying?]
- 9 BQA asked BQA about BQA. Again got name out of Year Book. Asked BQA would he be there? BQA said no; too intelligent, knows what he wanted, didn't need help with studies.

- 10 Why did he keep going? Perhaps the cigarette. Sometimes counselled. Put him under. Relaxed. Off with the clothes automatic.
