Dear Julie,

As you know, a significant issue for the insurers is non-disclosure. In this context, the allegations made by various claimants and others about complaints being made to members of the School staff are significant.

As previously suggested, I would like to interview the relevant individuals. I am not sure whether some or all of them continue to be members of the School staff. However, as a courtesy to you, and in an endeavour to expedite the interviews, I wondered if you could make arrangements for me to meet with Ron Cochrane, Max Howell, Mr A C Bromerly, Mr Ian Howlett and the Junior Master, Mr Byron. I am not sure whether there are any allegations of reports having been made to any other individuals. If you know of any such allegations I would also like to meet with the people who were allegedly informed.

Of course, you are more than welcome to sit in on the interviews.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Yours faithfully,
MINTER ELLISON
