

Dear Ron,

I write to thank you for the splendid work which you have put into the new approach to Pastoral Care at Brisbane Grammar School this term. I have been delighted with the team's enthusiasm and obvious capacities to do the task well, and I feel very heartened that our choices for the role are already amply being proven vindicated.

We are already receiving very positive responses from parents for support provided, and I believe that we are heading most confidently towards a really effective pastoral system, not just a ramshackle or lip-service arrangement.

I also want to thank you very much for your involvement in the recent Prefects' weekend. Again, I was very pleased with the event and had hardly dared hope for such a positive response to our first attempt.

Have a restful and refreshing vacation, and a happy and holy Christmas. I look forward to an exciting 1991 with you as a colleague and co-leader in the School.

With best wishes.

Yours sincerely,

PETER LENNOX.
