Thanks John. Have shown HE; his first thought is to reply saying we will leave it for a few months and perhaps revisit it then. We should discuss this further in January.

Dear Fr John and Others

I attach the rather grim response from Begg & Associates in response to our request for costs. Although I am sure that you will have a view on how to proceed, I would suggest that we perhaps ask Begg for more details of his client's health. I think that the reference to self-harm in the final paragraph is a reference to suicide.

I will await your instructions in the new year.

Kind regards

John
