Dear John

Thank you for your advice on this matter. I am presuming that our position is as discussed last week and that although we will not pursue costs at this time we will leave the matter open.

Best wishes

Dear Marita and Fr John

I attach the response made by Begg and Associates this morning. The matter is listed for further directions on Monday. At the directions hearing I intend to force Begg to articulate what, if any, case he still believes to be extant against the defendants.

Presently, Begg is trying to force the Trustees not to enforce their costs order by using the threat of further litigation. This needs to be addressed in Court.

I will send you a short note of the outcome of the hearing.

Kind regards

John
