Dear Michael and Marita

Further to my email above, I have attached a draft reply to this email.

The suggestion that Ellis may have any extant claims against the Archdiocese is nonsense. The Court of Appeal dealt with his legal and equitable claims (as you will see in the letter) and dismissed the proceedings with costs. Ellis/Begg are using this as an attempt to negotiate on their costs.

Please confirm that you are content for this letter to go.

Kind regards

John d

Dear Michael and Marita

I thought you should be aware of this fax from Begg and Associates. They are agitating that their client may still have a cause of action. This is plainly rubbish as Mason P ordered that the proceedings be dismissed. There was no suggestion that the Trustees or His Eminence might still be the proper defendant for those parts of the plaintiff's claim that do not require an extension of the limitation period (fiduciary claims).

Marita, perhaps we can discuss this when you are in Sydney next week. Fr John and Michael(s), I will call you to discuss this at a time that is convenient for you.

Kind regards

John
