PROCEDURES

DO:

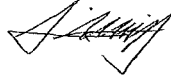

- Conduct yourself in a manner consistent with your position as a positive role model to children, and as a representative of the YMCA of Sydney.
- Read, understand and conform to organisational policy and guidelines around the safety of children as outlined in the YMCA of Sydney Child Protection Policy.
- Treat all young people with respect and take notice of their reactions to your tone of voice and manner.
- Raise all concerns, issues or problems with your program coordinator as soon as possible.
- Ensure all allegations or suspicions of abuse are reported immediately to your coordinator and record the relevant details in writing.
- Ensure that staff and volunteers providing direct care for children are identified by a name tag and uniform that is familiar to the children with whom they work. Children will be instructed to avoid any person not so identified.
- Follow all other procedures relating to children's safety as stipulated in YMCA of Sydney's policies and procedures.

DO NOT:

- Engage in rough physical games.
- Hold, kiss, cuddle or touch children in an inappropriate and/or culturally or insensitive way. Children sitting on a staff members laps is considered inappropriate. Children needing a cuddle should be "side cuddled" (adult to only allow child to cuddle the side of their body).

Note: Children with additional need may require physical contact in order to cater to their personal care needs. Staff should always ensure that another adult is present & that parents have consented to the specific care required.

- Discuss your personal life with children or families.
- Make violent or sexually suggestive comments to a child, even as a joke.
- Undertake a task of a personal nature that a child can do for themselves, for example; changing clothes, grooming, feeding and toileting.
