- All children will be encouraged to try a variety of activities regardless of sex or culture, encouraging children to treat, respect and play with other children happily.
- Resource materials used in the centre will, as far as possible, be non-stereotyped.
- Staff will provide a range of equipment, which is non-sexist and meets the needs of the children.
- Staff should act as positive role models encouraging children to be involved in activities commonly stereotyped for the opposite sex.
- Staff will be actively involved in a variety of activities regardless of sex, allocating time and interactions equally and fairly amongst both sexes.
- Every effort will be made to employ staff, relief staff and volunteers from both sexes.
- Making all resources available to all children through a program which allows children to select their own activities.
- Encourage friendships between children of the opposite sex.
