Dear Mr Giugni

St Ann's – Privilege claims in relation to C-NP-30

We act for the Archdiocese of Adelaide (Archdiocese). We refer to our recent correspondence in relation to the Notice to Produce C-NP-30 dated 16 May 2013 addressed to Archbishop Wilson (the Notice) and to the 63 documents referred to in your letter dated 11 February 2014.

Enclosed with this letter is a CD, which contains the 63 documents referred to in your letter dated 11 February 2014. These documents are provided to the Royal Commission by way of compulsory production in answer to the Notice.

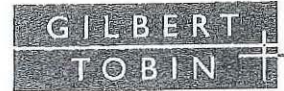

CD	Contents	Tranche	Comment
CD marked CTJH.140.CD-0004	Documents produced by the Archdiocese in response to a Notice to Produce dated 16 May 2013	Tranche Four	This CD includes: 63 documents from the Archdiocese

We are instructed by the Archdiocese not to make a claim for privilege over any of these documents pursuant to section 6AA of the Royal Commissions Act 1902 (Cth), for the purposes of the Royal Commission only, and in the interests of providing the Royal Commission with the documents which it requires.

We note (as stated in your letter dated 18 February 2014) that the Commission may make orders for the redaction and non-publication of confidential material in appropriate circumstances. The Archdiocese may revert to the Commission in relation to particular documents in due course.

We also refer to your letter dated 18 February 2014 in relation to the redaction of material which has been produced under the Notice for relevance.

Our client is presently reviewing these documents and anticipates providing the documents in un-redacted form this week.
