Dear Peter,

I am still looking into the status of the enquiries made by our office into the committal to care documents and will let you know as soon as possible.

I enclose a copy of your affidavit as amended by Counsel and interposed with comments for your attention.

Please read through the amended affidavit and advise of how much longer you require in order to complete the affidavit and of your availability to confer with Angelo and Counsel for the purpose of settling the affidavit. As stated in my email below, Counsel is preferably available next Thursday 15 April 2011. Does this suit?

Regards,

Dear Peter,

I refer to our telephone conversation yesterday afternoon, during which you indicated that you will be in Melbourne for the duration of the week.

As requested, I am now emailing you Counsel's availability for the week beginning Monday 18 April 2011. Please be advised that this conference to discuss your affidavit is a matter of urgency, as the defendant is to serve its evidence, of which your affidavit is a part, by 29 April 2011. It is preferable to meet next Thursday 21 April 2011, but if this day is an absolute impossibility, there is a possibility of meeting at 4:30/5:00pm on the afternoon of Tuesday 19 April 2011, or preferably, Wednesday 20 April 2011. Please advise of your availability as soon as possible.

I also note from our telephone conversation that only minor changes have been made to the word version of your affidavit emailed to Evangelos and Counsel on 6 March 2010. At your earliest convenience, please forward a copy of this latest affidavit to myself and Evangelos, in advance of the conference.

Regards,
