PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL

Dear REDACTED

I want to convey to BLF and all his family my profound regret at my past behaviour. I am deeply sorry to have caused grief and anguish. There is no excuse for my deplorable behaviour and I have cooperated fully with the Corio Police.

I expect no sympathy: indeed I deserve none.

I have asked and shall continue to ask for God's forgiveness.

I hope that the thoughts and prayers of my friends will help me in the time ahead. I shall certainly need them. The burden of sin is indeed heavy.

There is no need whatever to acknowledge this letter. I merely wanted to convey my regrets and remorse to BLF and your family.

Yours sincerely,

Jonathan Harvey
