1. For example, if Fett is able to manage off the_bak, all he has to do is to say that he thought that he had been doing 1, 2, and 3 but if he hadn't, he would apologize for any inconvenience to the housemasters concerned and he would certainly consider the constraints are totally reasonable. End of story.

2) The relationship with boys which Fett tries to cultivate which result in their having frequent, regular, and easy access to his home, the alcohol which he gives them, and the suspicion (not proven) that the relationship could have homosexual outcomes and

b) the role of the house? To be allowed to invite boys? To be allowed to entertain boys in Fett's absence.

3. They agree that the matter of his domicile should be established. HGM would say that he does not sleep in Biddlecombe Avenue. The story is that Fett bought the house in 1967 because you told him that he no longer stay in Biddlecombe Avenue.

4. While they would like the big concerns to be tackled, they see a problem if there is no evidence which can be produced to support the concern about
We could invite a group to set out the criteria for economical trips. It could consist of:

- HDM (Chairman)
- PCCH
- CS
- PTOC
- GS

The Malaysian concerns are mainly:
- poor quality of the itinerary
- supervision
- drinking
