

21st November, 1991

Mr. J.H Buckley

REDACTED

Dear John,

I think I ought to be writing a letter confirming that your service with the school will be ending at the end of 1991 (effective 31/12/91), and that your positions both part-time and full-time will then terminate jointly. I do want to make it clear on my own behalf and on behalf of my predecessors too just how grateful we have been over a long period of time now for the qualities of intellect and enthusiasm which you have brought to the academic and artistic life of the school. You have very often been successful in arousing interest, curiosity and enthusiasm of a quite special kind, and all that has been very much appreciated both inside the school and outside it as well.

I think that all the formalities will be tidied up by the Bursar. Both Vibeke and I very much hope that we shall continue to see something of you.

Yours sincerely,

(J. E. Lewis)
