Dear Jonathan,

Thank you for your letter bearing today's date advising me of your decision to retire at the end of the current academic year. I understand the reasons for your decision and would like to thank you for the outstanding service you have offered Geelong Grammar School since 1970: you have been a wonderful teacher, an outstanding housemaster, a fine and thoughtful colleague and a tremendous and committed schoolmaster. It is a little premature, but I would like to wish you a long, healthy and happy retirement.

On a personal note, thank you for your friendship and kindness towards my family. We will keep in touch and look forward to seeing you before too long, whichever <sup>hemisphere</sup> hemisphere!

With warmest wishes,

Yours ever,
