Can you legally believe

- Displace anger on to adult/school as protector *
- needs to be believed

if can somehow believe without accepting responsibility

- take responsibility

holding the school responsible → the perpetrator
- really should be

Does he just want to be heard or wants retribution

Why has it come up now or another crisis in his life at the moment?

let him do as much talking as possible
- draw him out

emotions: anger / distress hearing / retribution

Diff to say (legally) but I am hearing you.

* School was supposed to look after him - and how did it?
