Dear Stephen

Fyi

I will draft a reply tomorrow with the following themes.

It is good to get her reply

Giving her some comfort in our intentions in replying being sympathetic rather commercial (ie addressing reference to my position).

Agreeing that there is not much more that we can do until the case is heard but still extending the offer to talk to you on your return. I think an email from me and a call from you on your return is better than me calling tomorrow although I am comfortable making the call if you think it would help.

I now have her sons name so will try and find his details tomorrow.

I intend to stay away from her last paragraph.

I will discuss with Gavin as well.

Hope you are well.

Regards

Andrew
