Hi Arron

The Commission has finalised its investigation of this matter and consulted with the NSW Medical Board. The complaint against Dr Rolleston will now be referred to the Commission's Director of Proceedings, Ms Karen Mobbs, for her to determine whether any disciplinary action should/will be commenced against Dr Rolleston. If disciplinary proceedings are commenced, then Dr Rolleston and his legal representatives will be served with copies of the statements obtained from AWH [redacted] and AWO [redacted] (aka REDACTED).

It will probably take a few weeks for any decision to be made, but I thought I would advise of the outcome as I don't know whether you have had an opportunity to interview Dr Rolleston as yet. If you have any questions, please call me.

Regards
